FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Mike Tschirgi of Monona Announces Candidacy for Clayton County Sheriff

Mike Tschirgi of Monona announces he is running for the office of Clayton County Sheriff in the 2008 election.

He is a 17-year veteran with the sheriff's department and currently serves as an investigator. Before joining the sheriff's department, he worked for the Guttenberg Police Department and part-time for the Elkader Police Department.

Mike holds an Associate of Applied Arts Degree in Police Science from Hawkeye College. He is currently a member of LEIN (Law Enforcement Intelligence Network) and IAI (International Association for Identification). He also serves as a hunter safety instructor and graduated from Central High School in Elkader.

Active in fighting the war on drugs, he has numerous trainings to his record in both drug and criminal investigation. He is also a member of the Special Operations Group of the Clayton County Sheriff's Department.

Mike grew up on a farm near Elkader and currently resides near Monona with his wife, Audrey, of 11 years. He has one son, Jamie and two step-sons, Nick and Cody. In his off time he enjoys hunting, golf and woodworking.
